

CSN Program Benefits - Exhibit 2

CSN Program Benefits for Commercial Developers

Sectra shall use reasonable commercial efforts to provide the benefits described below to the Member.

Technical Support

The Member is entitled to ten (10) hours cost-free technical support from Sectra (including telephone and/or e-mail contact etc) with regard to the Software Product.

Sectra will attempt to provide an initial response within one day, and may follow-up with additional responses if necessary. Sectra, however, makes no guarantees with respect to response time or resolution of the issue. In addition to the initial ten (10) hours support, Sectra may at its sole discretion provide support on an hourly cost basis.

Training

Sectra organizes various training programs, in which Members may be invited to participate. All such training may be subject to additional fees and costs.

Technical Bulletins and other Written Information

The Member's Benefits include subscription to a mail-group with technical bulletins and other information from Sectra. A Member may not itself, and may not permit others, to reproduce, publish, distribute, sell, or use any such material in any manner whatsoever that may infringe any copyright or proprietary interest of Sectra.

Pre-Commercial Released Software

The Member will get access to the Software Product and related documentation prior to the Software Product's general availability release. Members agree to be bound by the General Terms and Conditions for Software License distributed together with the pre-released software.

Customer Referrals

Sectra will provide customer referral benefits. Sectra will determine such referrals at its sole discretion. The Member grants Sectra the right to publish the Member's name, contact information and other applicable information on Sectra's sites and to otherwise disclose and disseminate such information to potential referrals in other ways.

Links

The Member may place a link to Sectra's homepage on its web pages. Member agrees to properly code all links to Sectra's sites in the manner specified by Sectra at (<http://www.sectra.se/medical/partners/>). The Member may remove such links, at any time without prior approval from Sectra.

Access to Sectra Medical APIs

The Member is given access to the applicable part of Sectra Medical APIs. Commercial Developers are also granted access to Sectra software for the purpose of testing and development. The Member agrees to be bound by the General Terms and Conditions for Software License distributed together with the software.
